

Article Submission – Motor Yacht Pty Ltd

Please use the following guidelines in preparing and submitting material for publication with Motor Yacht Pty Ltd (the Company).

Guidelines

We welcome the submission of news articles to our sites.

Any submitted material must be novel and relevant to our audience.

All copy should be submitted in MS Word format.

Please submit photographs as separate files in jpeg, tiff, or gif format, do not embed images in Word documents or emails.

All images submitted need to be high resolution.

Do familiarise yourself with the style and content of the site before sending in any stories or article ideas.

Our articles range from 300 words to 1,500 words depending on the subject. Provide an eye-catching headline of no more than eight words along with an engaging first sentence/paragraph.

Make sure you are aware of the copyright status for any articles/images supplied and provide all appropriate credits for images.

All articles and images should be submitted by email to editor@motoryacht.com.au

Terms & Conditions

Articles must be the work of the author and be accompanied by the author's details including email address.

Articles submitted to the Company are subject to editorial review and submission does not guarantee the item will be published.

We reserve the right to edit all submissions. Submitted articles and images will be edited to conform to the style and content standards for our sites and to fit within space requirements.

Articles may contain links to supporting information/articles however none of these is to be an affiliate link or promotional link to a business. (They must be relevant to the article and its context) promotional and affiliate links will be removed.

We do not include or publish product or service trademarks, logo's or devices unless they directly relate to the subject of the article. Any such marks that are related will be published at the sole discretion of the company.

We reserve the right to share all posts on social media.

We do not pay writers for submissions.

By submitting content, you acknowledge that you are authorised to submit the copy and images for publication and agree to the above guidelines and terms & Conditions.